RE: Temporary Restraining Order 19-CV-1319 and 15-CR-115 Farmland

Judge Pepper:

In keeping with my right to have access to the Court, and because attorney Penegor is not, according to him, receiving my emails.

I wish to have the record reflect the fact that I have not waived my right to a hearing as described under 18 U.S.C. 1514 (a)(2)(C). Further, that I did not agree to extend the time for a hearing on the Temporary Restraining Order by more than a year. I believe that this delay undermines the statute, prejudices me, and to be a violation of 18 U.S.C. 1514 (a)(2)(C). With all due respect intended.

I am also concerned about the government's attempts to prevent me from offering evidence and cross-examining witnesses as is my right under 18 U.S.C. 1514(b)(3) through the filing of a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings, as any decision based only on the pleadings would be a decision on an incomplete record, and would be absent the adversarial testing that is required.

If given the opportunity, I can prove, overwhelmingly that, any suit I bring, particularly relative to the 15-CR-115 Farmland case, is not for the purpose of harassment or retaliation, not for the purpose of obtaining evidence in the hopes of overturning my convictions, but rather, to expose illegal acts that were committed against my partner, Father Melvin E. Krumdick and I, and possibly others, outside the government's 15-CR-115 Farmland case scheme end date of September 2011.

As I express to the Court, in a forthcoming letter, Father Krumdick and I have overwhelming evidence which suggests the government's attorneys are conspirator in one of the largest Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) schemes in history. The filing of a Temporary Restraining Order, Order of Protection, attempts to prevent me from offering evidence and cross examining witnesses and continual oversight of my prison emails, mail and telephone calls are all evidence of the government's attempt to conceal the theft of my business model again, outside the 15-CR-115 Farmland scheme end date of September 2011.

These efforts also seek to protect those involved including, publicly-traded Farmland Partners, Inc. (NYSE: FPI), its directors and senior management, alleged victim Mark Borst, co-defendant Nicholas C. Hindman, Sr. and others.

Respectfully submitted,

Todd A. Dyer
